Order Denying Motion for Compassionate Release Without Prejudice

This matter is before the Court on Defendant Brian Williams pro se motion that the Court construed as a Motion for Compassionate Release under the First Step Act of 2018. (Dkt. 56). The Court appointed counsel to represent Defendant and stayed the case. Dkts. 57, 59. CJA counsel appeared on Defendant's behalf, dkt. 58, but then withdrew, dkts. 62, 64.

After counsel withdrew, the Court concluded that Defendant's pro se Motion for Compassionate Release lacked sufficient information for the Court to conclude that he was entitled to compassionate release. Accordingly, on January 5, 2021, the Court ordered Defendant to supplement his motion by completing and returning the Court's form compassionate release motion by February 19, 2021. Dkt. 64. The Court warned Defendant that his Motion for Compassionate Release would be considered abandoned and denied without prejudice if he did not return the form motion as directed. Id. The Court mailed its Order and the form motion to Defendant on January 5, 2021.

As of the writing of this Order, Defendant has not completed and returned the Court's form motion as required, and the deadline for doing so has passed. Accordingly, the Court considers Defendant's Motion for Compassionate Release abandoned, and the motion, dkt. [56], is denied without prejudice. Nothing in this Order, however, prohibits Defendant from filing a new motion for compassionate release.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
